

Edward Corbett
Managing Director

FIDIC Certified Adjudicator
FIDIC Accredited Trainer

Edward is acknowledged as one of the world's most experienced international construction lawyers with an unsurpassed reputation as a FIDIC expert. His expertise is recognised with his ranking in Chambers & Partners UK 2022 – Construction: International Arbitration UK-wide and he is recommended within Legal 500 UK 2022 Construction (Contentious).

Edward is the managing director of Corbett & Co., a practice specialising in international construction law.

After studying at Oxford University, he qualified as a barrister and practised for a short while before joining Masons in the City of London as a specialist construction lawyer. Since joining Masons in 1984, he has worked exclusively in construction law. He was admitted as a solicitor in 1988.

His experience includes contract drafting and procurement strategy as well as Dispute Boards, ICC arbitration, litigation and ADR. He has worked for contractors as well as for employers, funders and consultants. He regularly advises some of the world's major employers and contractors and his current caseload involves projects in Europe, Africa, South Asia and the Middle East.

He has an MSc in Construction law and arbitration from King's College and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

He has experience as an arbitrator and adjudicator on both UK and international disputes and is an accredited mediator. He is on FIDIC's list of adjudicators and is trained as a TeCSA adjudicator.

Edward is the author of FIDIC 4th- A Practical Legal Guide and many articles and papers dealing with aspects of international construction contracts. He is on the Editorial Board of Construction Law International.

Edward was named Global Elite Thought Leader by Who's Who Legal 2019 and described as "a heavyweight in the international construction field and the top name in Europe according to our research this year. Sources say he is "the star player in the UK market", with "knowledge that is next to none"."

He has lectured extensively on construction law and in particular on FIDIC's standard forms of contract.

Edward was co-chair of the International Bar Association's international construction projects committee. He was a member of the Working Groups of FIDIC responsible for drafting the 1999 Short Form of Contract, the Dredging and Reclamation Contract and the Red Book Subcontract. Corbett & Co is an affiliate member of FIDIC.
