

Contentious Construction 1-5 years' PQE +

We are seeking a contentious construction solicitor with 1-5 years' or more post-qualification experience to join us in our Teddington office.

The role

The individual will provide construction advice to a range of clients, as well as working with colleagues across the firm. Duties include:

- advising employer, contractor, engineer and subcontractor clients on a range of contentious construction disputes;
- assisting with dispute board, adjudication, arbitration and litigation proceedings both domestically and internationally; and
- winning the confidence of clients by delivering quality legal advice in a commercial way.

The candidate

The successful candidate will meet the following criteria:

- 1-5 years' or more post-qualification experience from a recognised practice;
- strong academic qualifications from A Levels (or equivalent), with a minimum 2:1 degree in law (or equivalent) from a highly regarded institution;
- articulate and confident;
- willing to take on responsibility;
- committed and motivated; and
- excellent interpersonal skills at all levels.

Please note that the job description is not exhaustive and may vary in line with changes in the team's objectives and firm's policy.
